Choose Life: We pray for those who shepherd families, parishes, communities or nations that they will teach the truth of the sanctity of each human life.

Host Families Needed: Geibel High School has quite a few foreign exchange students interested in enrolling for the next academic year. To accommodate them, however, we need host families willing to open their homes - and their hearts. The experience of accepting a foreign exchange student can be life-changing for the entire family. If you are interested in expanding the horizons of your world beyond Southwestern Pennsylvania and open to the challenge of engaging a new and unfamiliar culture face-to-face then this opportunity is for YOU! Please contact Fr. Bob for further information.

Flowers for the Altar: If you would like to have flowers placed on the altar for a special weekend and/or in memory of your loved one, please call in advance:

As declared by Pope Benedict XVI,
The Year of the Priest
will be a time to encourage "spiritual perfection" among priests, as well as time to support and thank them for their service to the church.

Third Sunday of Easter April 18, 2010

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain
to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing."

— Revelation 5:12

SAINT ANSELM (1033-1109) April 21

For anyone disheartened at how easily contemporary discussions of disputed Church-State issues escalate from civil discourse to shrill polemic, Anselm provides perspective. Grounded in the Benedictine Rule's balanced "prayer and work," this monk-scholar, called from his Abbey to become Archbishop of Canterbury, was thrust into firestorms of political intrigue, himself the target of warring bishops and nobles, kings and popes. Yet from depths of inner peace, Anselm wrote this moving exhortation by which today's Liturgy of the Hours celebrates him: "Rise up, insignificant man! From your preoccupations, flee a while. From your turbulent thoughts, hide for a time. Your crushing responsibilities cast aside. Your burdensome business lay down. Free a little space for God. Rest a little while in him!"

"Faith seeking understanding" was his strikingly contemporary motto; and though renowned as an erudite philosopher-theologian, Anselm also left personal letters, profound for their insights on Christian friendship. Along with those, he composed "A Prayer for My Friends" and "A Prayer for My Enemies," reminding us that those who love God most passionately are also those who love others most humanly.
